HOLY GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST

ACCORDING TO ST MATTHEW

St Matthew, one of the twelve Apostles, who from being a publican, that is, a tax-gatherer, was called by our Saviour to the Apostleship; in that profession his name was Levi (Luke v, 27, and Mark ii, 14.) He was the first of the Evangelists that wrote the Gospel, and that in Hebrew, or Syro-Chaldaic, which the Jews in Palestine spoke at that time. The original is not now extant, but as it was translated in the time of the Apostles into Greek, that version was of equal authority. He wrote about six years after our Lord's Ascension.

CHAPTER I.

The genealogy of Christ: he is conceived and born of a virgin.

THE book of the generation David, the son of Abraham:

4 And Aram begot Aminadab. 7 And Aminadab begot Naasson. And Naasson begot Salmon.

5 And Salmon begot Booz of Rahab. 8And Booz begot

Obed of Ruth. And Obed begot Jesse.

6 9 And Jesse begot David the king. 10 And David the king of JESUS CHRIST, the son of begot Solomon, of her that had been the wife of Urias.

13 And Zorobabel begot Abiud. And Abiud begot Eliacim. And Eliacim begot Azor.

14 And Azor begot Sadoc. And Sadoc begot Achim. And Achim begot Eliud.

15 And Eliud begot Eleazar. And Eleazar begot Mathan. And Mathan begot Jacob.

16 And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called CHRIST.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations. And from David to the transmigration of Babylon, are fourteen generations; and from the transmigration of Babylon to Christ are fourteen generations.

18 Now the generation of CHRIST was in When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child, of the Holy Ghost.

19 Whereupon Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing publicly to expose away privately.

12 And after the transmigra- 20 But while he thought on tion of Babylon, Jechonias be- these things, behold the Angel got Salathiel. And Salathiel of the Lord appeared to him in his sleep, saving: Joseph, son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife, for that which is conceived in her, is of the Holy Ghost.

> 21 And she shall bring forth a son: 2 and thou shalt call his name Jesus. For he shall save his people from their sins.

> 22 Now all this was done that it might be fulfilled which the Lord spoke by the prophet, saying:

23 Behold a virgin shall be with child, and bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 And Joseph rising upfrom sleep, did as the Angel of the Lord had commanded him, and took unto him his wife.

25 And he knew her not till this wise. 1 she brought forth her first-born son: and he called his name JESUS.

² Luke 1. 31. Acts 4. 12.-3 I-aias 7. 14.

Ver. 25. Till she brought forth her first-born son. From these words Helvidius and other heretics most impiously inferred that the blessed Virgin Mary had other children besides Christ; but St Jerome shews. by divers examples, that this expression of the Evangelist was a manner of speaking usual among the Hehrews, to denote by the word until, only what is done, without any regard to the til, only what is done, without any regard to the future: Thus it is said, Gen. chap. viii, ver. 6 and 7. That Noe sent forth a raven, which went forth, and did not return TILL the waters were dried up on the earth. That is, did not return any more. Also Issaias, chap. xlvi, ver. 4 God says: I am TILL you grow old. Who dare infer that God should then cease to be?

CHAP. I. Ver. 16. The husband of Mary. The Evangelist gives us rather the pedigree of St Joseph, than that of the blessed Virgin, to conform to the custom of the Hebrews, who in their genealogies took no notice of women: but as they were near akin, the pedigree of the one sheweth that of the other.

CHAPTER II

The offerings of the wise men: The flight into Egypt: The massacre of the Innocents.

HEN ¹ Jesus therefore was born in Bethlehem of Juda, in the days of king Herod, behold, there came wise men from the East to Jerusalem.

2 Saying: Where is he that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the East, and are come to adore him.

3 And king Herod hearing this, was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And assembling together all the chief priests and the Scribes of the people, he inquired of them where Christ should be born.

5 But they said to him: In Bethlehem of Juda. For so it is written by the prophet:

6 2 And thou Bethlehem the land of Juda art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come forth the

Also in the first book of Machabees, chap. v, Also in the first book of Machabees, chap. v, ver. 54. And they went up to mount Sion with 50y, and gladness, and offered holocausts, because not one of them was slain till they had returned in peace. That is, not one was slain, before or after they had returned. God saith to his divine Son: Sit on my right hand TILL I make thy enemies thy footstool. Shall he sit no longer after his enemies the Shall he sit no longer after his enemies are subdued? Yea and for all eternity. St Jerome also proves by Scripture examples, that an only begotten son, was also called first-born, or first-begotten: because according to the law, the first-born males were to be consecrated to God: Sanctify, unio me, saith the Lord, every first-born that openeth the womb among the children of Israel, &c. Exod. chap. xiii, ver. 2.

captain that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, privately calling the wise men, learned diligently of them the time of the star which appeared to them;

8 And sending them into Bethlehem, said: Go and diligently inquire after the child; and when you have found him, bring me word again, that I also may come and adore him.

9 Who having heard the king, went their way; and behold the star which they had seen in the East, went before them, until it came and stood over where the child was.

10 And seeing the star they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 And entering into the house, they found the child with Mary his mother, and falling down they adored him: ³ and opening their treasures, they offered him gifts; gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And having received an answer in sleep that they should not return to Herod, they went back another way into their country.

13 And after they were departed, behold an Angel of the Lord appeared in sleep to Joseph, saying: Arise, and take the child and his mother, and fly into Egypt: and be there until I shall tell thee. For it will come to pass that Herod

15 That it might be fulfilled which the Lord spoke by the prophet, saying: 1 Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16 Then Herod perceiving that he was deluded by the wise men, was exceeding angry: and sending killed all the men-children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremias

the prophet, saving

19 But when Herod was dead, behold an Angel of the Lord appeared in sleep to

Joseph in Egypt,

20 Saying: Arise, and take the child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel. For they are dead that sought the life of the child.

21 Who arose, and took the child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But hearing that Arche-

> 23 And coming he dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was said by the prophets: That he shall be called a Nazarite.

CHAPTER III.

The preaching of John: Christ is baptized.

3 And why seest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eve; and seest not the beam that is in thy own eye?

4 Or how sayest thou to thy brother: Let me cast the mote out of thy eye; and behold a beam is in thy own eve?

5 Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thy own eve, and then shalt thou see to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

8 For every one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

9 4 Or what man is there among you, of whom if his son shall ask bread, will he reach him a stone?

10 Or if he shall ask him a fish, will he reach him a ser-

10 And his disciples came and said to him: Why speakest thou to them in parables?

11 Who answered and said to them: Because to you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven: but to them it is not given.

12 ² For he that hath, to him shall be given, and he shall abound: but he that hath not, from him shall be taken away that also which he hath.

13 Therefore do I speak to them in parables: because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

Ver. 9. Commandments of men. The doctrines and commandments here reprehended are such as are either contrary to the law of God (as that of neglecting parents, under pretence of giving to God), or at least are frivolous, unprofitable, and no ways conducing to true piety, as that of often washing hands, &c., without regard to the purity of the heart. But as to the rules and ordinances of the holy church, touching fasts, festivals, &c., these are no ways repugnant to, but highly agreeable to God's holy word, and all christian piety: neither are they to be counted among the doctrines and commandments of men; because they proceed not from mere human authority; but from that which Christ has authority; but from that which construints has established in his Church; whose pastors he has commanded us to hear and obey, even as himself, St Luke x, 16. tracted by eating it with unwashed hands, can defile the soul: but sin alone; or a disobedience of the heart to the ordinance and will of God. And thus when Adam took the forbidden fruit, it was not the apple, which entered into the mouth, but the disobedience to the law of God which defiled him. The same is to be said if a Jew, in the time of the old law, had eaten swine's flesh; or a christian convert, in the days of the Apostles, contrary to their ordinance, had eaten blood; or if any of the faithful at present should transgress the ordinance of God's Church by breaking the fasts: For in all these cases the soul would be defiled; not indeed by that which goeth into the mouth: but by the disobedience of the heart, in wilfully transgressing the ordinance of God, or of those who have their authority from him.

Christ declares matrimony to be indissoluble: he recommends the making one's self an ennuch for the kingdom of heaven; and parting with all things for him. He shows the danger of riches, and the reward of leaving all to follow him.

A ND it came to pass when Jesus had ended these words he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea, beyond Jordan.

2 And great multitudes followed him: and he healed them there.

HEN shall the kingdom of heaven be like to ten virgins, who taking their lamps went out to meet the bridegroom and the bride.

2 And five of them were foolish, and five wise.

3 But the five foolish, having taken their lamps, did not take oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with the lamps.

5 And the bridegroom tarrying, they all slumbered and slept.

- 6 And at midnight there was a cry made: Behold the bridegroom cometh, go ye forth to meet him.
- 7 Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said to the wise: Give us of your oil, for our lamps are gone out.

9 The wise answered, saying: Lest perhaps there be not enough for us and for you, go you rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 Now whilst they went to buy, the bridegroom came: and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage, and the door was shut.

CHAPTER XXVII.

The continuation of the history of the passion of Christ. His death and burial.

ND when morning was come, all the chief priests and ancients of the people took counsel against Jesus, that they might put him to death.

2 4 And they brought him bound, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 Then Judas, who betrayed him, seeing that he was condemned; repenting himself, brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and ancients,

7 And after they had consulted together, they bought with them the potter's field, to be a burying-place for strangers.

8 For this cause that field was called haceldama, that is, the field of blood, even to this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremias the prophet, saying: 3 And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was prized, whom they prized of the children of Israel.

THE

HOLY GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST

ACCORDING TO ST MARK

ST MARK, the disciple and interpreter of St Peter (saith St Jerome), according to what he heard from Peter himself, wrote at Rome a brief Gospel at the request of the brethren, about ten years after our Lord's Ascension, which when Peter had heard, he approved of it, and with his authority published it to the Church to be read. Baronius and others say, that the original was written in Latin, but the more general opinion is, that the Evangelist wrote it in Greek.

HOLY GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST

ACCORDING TO ST LUKE

St Luke was a native of Antioch, the capital of Syria; he was by profession a physician, and some ancient writers say, that he was very skilful in painting. He was converted by St Paul, and became his disciple and his companion in his travels, and fellow-labourer in the ministry of the Gospel. He wrote in Greek about twenty-four years after our Lord's ascension.

CHAPTER X.

Christ sends forth, and instructs his seventytwo disciples. The good Samaritan.

ND after these things the Lord appointed also other seventy-two: and he sent them two and two before his face into every city and place whither he himself was to come.

2 And he said to them: 2 The harvest indeed is great, but the Pray ye labourers are few. therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send labourers into his harvest.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they have: 6 For the labourer is worthy of his hire. Remove not from house to house.

8 And into what city soever you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before vou;

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say to them: The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city you enter, and they receive you not, going forth into the streets thereof, say:

11 7 Even the very dust of your city that cleaveth to us we wipe off against you. Yet know this that the kingdom of God is at hand.

12 I say to you, it shall be more tolerable at that day for Sodom, than for that city.

He teaches his disciples to pray. Casts out a dumb devil. Confutes the Pharisees; and pronounces woes against them for their hypocrisy.

ND it came to pass, that as he was in a certain place praying, when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him: Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

8 Yet if he shall continue knocking, I say to you, although he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend; yet because of his importunity he will rise, and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, and you shall find: knock, and it shall be opened to you.

26 Then he goeth and taketh with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and entering in they dwell there. And the last state of that man becomes worse than the first.

27 And it came to pass, as he spoke these things, a certain woman from the crowd lifting up her voice said to him: Blessed is the womb that bore thee, and the paps that gave thee suck.

28 But he said: Yea rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 And the multitudes running together, he began to say:

This generation is a wicked generation: it asketh a sign, and a sign shall not be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 ² For as Jonas was a sign to the Ninivites, so shall the son of man also be to this generation.

31 ³ The queen of the south shall rise in the judgment with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold more than Solomon here.

36 If then thy whole body be lightsome, having no part of darkness; the whole shall be lightsome, and as a bright lamp shall enlighten thee.

37 And as he was speaking, a certain Pharisee prayed him that he would dine with him. And he going in, sat down to 38 And the Pharisee began to say, thinking within himself, why he was not washed before dinner.

The necessity of penance. The barren fig-tree. The cure of the infirm woman, &c.

ND there were present at that very time some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And he answering said to them: Think you that these Galileans were sinners above all themen of Galilee, because they suffered such things?

3 No, I say to you: but unless you shall do penance, you shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen upon whom the tower fell in Siloe, and slew them: think you that they also were debtors above all the men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

1 Matt. 5. 25.

6 He spoke also this parable: A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none.

7 And he said to the dresser of the vineyard: Behold for these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and I find none. Cut it down therefore; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 But he answering said to him: Lord, let it alone this year also, until I dig about it, and dung it.

9 And if happily it bear fruit: but if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in their synagogue on their sabbath.

11 And behold there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years: and she was bowed together, neither could she look upwards at all.

12 Whom when Jesus saw, he called her unto him, and said to her: Woman, thou art delivered from thy infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands upon her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue, (being angry that Jesus had healed on the sabbath,) answering said to the multitude: Six days there are wheretherefore come, and be healed: them:

and not on the sabbath-day.

15 And the Lord answering him, said: Ye hypocrites, doth not every one of you on the sabbath-day loose his ox or his ass from the manger, and lead them to water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath-day?

17 And when he said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the things that were gloriously done by him.

18 He said therefore: To what is the kingdom of God like, and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 1 It is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and cast into his garden, and it grew, and became a great tree, and the birds of the air lodged in the branches thereof.

20 And again he said: Whereunto shall I esteem the kingdom of God to be like?

21 ² It is like to leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

3 And Jesus answering, said to them: I will also ask you one thing. Answer me:

- 5 But they thought within themselves, saying: If we shall say, From heaven; he will say: Why then did you not believe him?
- 6 But if we say, Of men; the whole people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered that they knew not whence it was.

- 9 And he began to speak to the people this parable: ² A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen: and he was abroad for a long time.
 - 10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard. Who beating him sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant. But they beat him also, and treating him reproachfully, sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent the third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then the lord of the vineyard said: What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be when they see him, they will reverence him.

14 Whom when the husbandmen saw, they thought within themselves, saying: This is the heir, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So casting him out of the vineyard, they killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them?

16 He will come, and will destroy these husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others. Which they hearing, said to him: God forbid.

17 But he looking on them, said: What is this then that is written, ³ The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone, shall be bruised: and upon whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

HOLY GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST

ACCORDING TO ST JOHN

St John the Apostle and Evangelist, was the son of Zebedee and Salome, and brother to James the Greater. He was called the beloved disciple of Christ, and stood by at his crucifixion. He wrote the Gospel after the other Evangelists, about sixty-three years after our Lord's Ascension. Many things that they had omitted were supplied by him. The original was written in Greek, and by the Greeks he is titled The Divine. St Jerome relates that when he was earnestly requested by the brethren to write the Gospel, he answered he would do it, if by ordering a common fast, they would all put up their prayers together to the Almighty God; which being ended, replenished with the clearest and fullest revelation, coming from Heaven, he burst forth into that preface: In the beginning was the Word, &c.

CHAPTER I.

The Divinity and Incarnation of Christ. John bears witness of him. He begins to call his disciples.

I N the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

- 2 The same was in the beginning with God.
- 3 All things were made by him: and without him was made nothing that was made.
- 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men:
- 5 And the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.
- 6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.
- 7 This man came for a witness, to give testimony of the light, that all men might believe through him.

8 He was not the light, but was to give testimony of the light.

9 ² That was the true light, which enlighteneth every man that cometh into this world.

10 He was in the world, ³ and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, he gave them power to be made the sons of God, to them that believe in his name.

13 Who are born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 ⁴ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we saw his glory, the glory as it were of the only-begotten of the Father) full of grace and truth,

15 John beareth witness of him, and crieth out, saying: This was he of whom I spoke: He that shall come after me, is preferred before me: because he was before me.

16 ¹ And of his fulness we all have received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 ² No man hath seen God at any time: the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent from Jerusalem priests and Levites to him, to ask him: Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and did not deny: and he confessed: I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him: What then? Art thou Elias? And he said: I am not. Art thou the prophet? And he answered: No.

22 They said therefore unto him: Who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent us? what sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said: ³ I am the voice of one crying in the milderness, Make straight the may of the Lord, as said the prophet Isaias.

24 And they that were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said to him: Why then dost thou baptize, if thou be not Christ, nor Elias, nor the prophet?

26 John answered them, saying: 4 I baptize with water; but there hath stood one in the midst of you, whom you know not.

27 ⁵ The same is he that shall come after me, who is preferred before me: the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to loose.

28 These things were done in Bethania beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day John saw Jesus coming to him, and he saith: Behold the lamb of God, behold him who taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said: After me there cometh a man, who is preferred before me: because he was before me.

31 And I knew him not, but that he may be made manifest in Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John gave testimony, saying: ⁶ I saw the spirit coming down as a dove from heaven, and he remained upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he, who sent me to baptize with water, said to me: He CHAP. II. Ver. 4. What is it to me, &c. These words of our Saviour spoken to his mother have been understood by some commentators as harsh, they not considering the next following verse: Whatsoever he shall say to you, do ye, which plainly shews that his mother knew of the miracle that he was to perform, and that it was at her request he wrought it; besides the manner of speaking the words as to the tone, and the countenance shewn at the same time, which could only be known to those who were present, or from what had followed: for words indicating anger in one tone of voice, would be understood quite the reverse in another.

5 He cometh therefore to a city of Samaria which is called Sichar; near the land 5 which Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well. It was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith to her: Give me to drink.

8 For his disciples were gone into the city to buy meats.

9 Then that Samaritan woman saith to him: How dost thou, being a Jew, ask of me to drink, who am a Samaritan woman? For the Jews do not communicate with the Samaritans.

23 But the hour cometh, and shall adore the Father in spirit and in truth. For the Father also seeketh such to adore him.

CHAPTER VI.

Christ feeds five thousand with five loaves: he walks upon the sea, and discourses of the bread of life.

FTER 1 these things, Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is that of Tiberias:

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw the miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 Jesus therefore went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 Now the Pasch, the festival day 2 of the Jews, was near at hand.

- 5 When Jesus therefore had lifted up his eyes, and seen that a very great multitude cometh to him, he said to Philip: Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat?
- 6 And this he said to try him: for he himself knew what he would do.
- 7 Philip answered him: Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon

Peter, saith to him:

9 There is a boy here that hath five barley loaves and two what are but these among so many?

10 Then JESUS said: the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. The men therefore sat down in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves: and when he had given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down. In like manner also of the fishes as much as they would.

lest they be lost.

13 They gathered up therefore, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above to them that had eaten.

- 14 Now those men, when they had seen what a miracle Jesus had done, said: This is of a truth the prophet that is to come into the world.
- 15 Jesus therefore when he knew that they would come to take him by force and make him king, 3 fled again into the mountain himself alone.
- 16 And when evening was come, his disciples went down to the sea.
- 17 And when they had gone up into a ship, they went over the sea to Capharnaum: and it was now dark, and Jesus was not come unto them.
- 18 And the sea arose by Make reason of a great wind that blew.

Ver. 28. For the Father is greater than I. It is evident that Christ our Lord speaks here of himself, as he is made man: for as God he is equal to the Father: (See Philippians ii). Any difficulty of understanding the meaning of these words will vanish, when the relative circumstances of the text here are considered; for Christ being at this time shortly to suffer death, signified to his apostles his human nature by these very words; for as God he could not die. And therefore as he was both God and man, it must follow that according to his humanity he was to die, which the apostles were soon to see and believe, as he expresses, ver. 29. And now I have told you before it come to pass: that when it shall come to pass, you may believe.

AM the true vine; and my Father is the husbandman.

2 Every branch in me, that beareth not fruit, he will take away: and every one that beareth fruit he will purge it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 2 Now you are clean by reason of the word which I have spoken to you.

4 Abide in me: and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abide in the vine, so neither can you, unless you abide in me.

15 I am the vine; you the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for with-

8 In this is my Father glorified; that you bring forth very much fruit, and become my dis-

16 You have not chosen me: but I have chosen you; and have appointed you, 2 that you should go, and should bring forth fruit, and your fruit should remain: that whatsoever you shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

CHAPTER XVI.

The conclusion of Christ's last discourse to his disciples.

THESE things have I spoken to you, that you may not be scandalized.

2 They will put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you, will think that he doth a service to God.

3 And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things I have told you, that when the hour shall come, you may remember that I told you of them.

5 But I told you not these things from the beginning, because I was with you. And now I go to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me: Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have spoken these things to you sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 But I tell you the truth: it is expedient to you that I go: for if I go not, the Paraclete will not come to you: but if I go, I will send him to you.

8 And when he is come, he will convince the world of sin, and of justice, and of judgment.

9 Of sin: because they believed not in me.

10 And of justice: because I go to the Father; and you shall see me no longer.

11 And of judgment: because the prince of this world is already judged.

12 I have yet many things to say to you: but you cannot bear them now.

13 But when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will teach you all truth. For he shall not speak of himself: but what things soever he shall hear, he shall speak: and the things that are to come he shall shew you.

14 He shall glorify me; because he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it to you.

15 All things whatsoever the Father hath, are mine. Therefore I said, he shall receive of mine, and shew it to you.

16 A little while, and now you shall not see me: and again a little while, and you shall see me: because I go to the Father.

17 Then some of his disciples said one to another: What is this that he saith to us: A little while, and you shall not see me: and again a little while, and you shall see me, and because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore: What is this that he saith, A little while? we know not what he speaketh.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter, following him, and went into the sepulchre, and saw the linen cloths lying.

7 And the napkin that had been about his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but apart, wrapt up into one place.

8 Then that other disciple also went in, who came first to the sepulchre: and he saw and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 The disciples therefore departed again to their home.

11 6 But Mary stood at the sepulchre without, weeping. Now as she was weeping, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre:

THE

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

This book, which from the first ages hath been called The Acts of the Apostles, is not to be considered as a history of what was done by all the Apostles, who were dispersed into different nations; but only a short view of the first establishment of the Christian Church. A part of the preaching and actions of St Peter are related in the twelve first chapters; and a particular account of St Paul's apostolical labours in the subsequent chapters. It was written by St Luke the Evangelist, and the original in Greek. Its history commences from the Ascension of Christ our Lord, and ends in the year sixty-three, being a brief account of the Church for the space of about thirty years.

The miracle upon the lame man, followed by the conversion of many.

TOW Peter and John went up into the temple, at the ninth hour of prayer.

2 And a certain man who was lame from his mother's womb, was carried; whom they laid every day at the gate of the temple, which is called Beautithem that went into the temple.

3 He, 1 when he had seen Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked to receive an alms.

4 But Peter with John fastening his eyes upon him, said:

Look upon us.

5 But he looked earnestly upon them, hoping that he should receive something of them.

6 But Peter said: Silver and gold I have none; but what I have, I give thee: in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, arise, and walk.

7 And taking him by the right hand, he lifted him up, and forthwith his feet and soles received strength.

8 And he leaping up stood, and walked and went in with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God.

10 And they knew him, that it was he who sat begging alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.

11 And as he held Peter and John, all the people ran to them to the porch which is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 But Peter seeing, made answer to the people: Ye men of Israel, why wonder you at this? or why look you upon ful, that he might ask alms of us, as if by our strength or power we had made this man to walk?

The ordaining of the seven deacons. zeal of Stephen.

ND in those days, the number of the disciples increasing, there arose a murmuring of the Greeks against the Hebrews, for that their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve calling together the multitude of the disciples said: It is not reason that we should leave the word of God and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 And the saying was liked by all the multitude. And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch.

1 A.D. 33.

6 These they set before the apostles: and they praying imposed hands upon them.

7 And the word of the Lord increased, and the number of the disciples was multipled in Jerusalem exceedingly: a great multitude also of the priests obeved the faith.

8 And Stephen full of grace and fortitude did great wonders and signs among the people.

9 Now there arose some of that which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of them that were of Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit that spoke.

11 Then they suborned men to say they had heard him speak words of blasphemy against Moses and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the ancients, and the scribes: and running together they took him, and brought him to the council.

13 And they set up false witnesses, who said: This man ceaseth not to speak words against the holy place and the law.

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the traditions which Moses delivered unto us.

Stephen's speech before the council: his martyrdom.

THEN 1 the high-priest said: Are these things so?

2 Who said: Ye men, brethren and fathers, hear. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charan.

3 And said to him: 2 Go forth out of thy country and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

- 4 Then he went out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charan. And from thence, after his father was dead, he removed him into this land wherein you now dwell.
- 5 And he gave him no inheritance in it, no not the pace of a foot: but he promised to give it him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.
- 6 And God said to him, ³ That his seed should sojourn in a strange country, and that they should bring them under bondage, and treat them evil four hundred years:

7 And the nation which they shall serve, will I judge, saith the Lord: and after these things they shall go out, and shall serve me in this place.

8 ⁴ And he gave him the covenant of circumcision, ⁵ and so he begot Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day: and ⁶ Isaac begot Jacob: ⁷ and Jacob the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, through envy, 8 sold Joseph into Egypt;

and God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his tribulations: ⁹ and he gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharao king of Egypt, and he appointed him governor over Egypt, and over all his house.

11 Now there came a famine upon all Egypt, and Canaan, and great tribulation: and our fathers found no food.

20 2 At the same time was Moses born, and he was acceptable to God; who was nourished three months in his father's house.

21 And when he was exposed, Pharao's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians: and he was mighty in his words and in his deeds.

23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 ³ And when he had seen one of them suffering wrong, he defended him: and striking the Egyptian, he avenged him who suffered the injury.

25 And he thought that his brethren understood that God by his hand would save not.

5 I was in the city of Joppe praying, and I saw in an ecstasy of mind a vision, a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners, and it came even unto me.

6 Into which looking I considered, and saw four-footed creatures of the earth, and beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air:

7 And I heard also a voice saying to me: Arise, Peter, kill, and eat.

- 8 And I said: Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath ever entered into my mouth.
- 9 And the voice answered again from heaven: What God hath made clean, do not thou call common.

10 And as soon as he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go into Macedonia, being assured that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

11 And sailing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the day following to Neapolis:

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were in this city some days conferring together.

13 And upon the sabbath-day we went forth without the gate by a riverside, where it seemed that there was prayer; and sitting down we spoke to the women that were assembled.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple of the city of Thyatira, one that worshipped God, did hear: whose heart the Lord opened to attend to those things which were said by Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying: If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and abide there. And she constrained us.

25 And when they had bound him with thongs, Paul saith to the centurion that stood by him: Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 Which the centurion hearing, went to the tribune, and about to do? For this man is a Roman citizen.

27 And the tribune, coming, said to him: Tell me, art thou a Roman? But he said: Yea.

28 And the tribune answered: I obtained the being free of this city with a great sum. And Paul said: But I was born so.

Paul appeals to Cesar. King Agrippa desires to hear him.

OW ²when Festus was come into the province, after three days he went up to Jerusalem from Cesarea.

2 And the chief priests and principal men of the Jews went unto him against Paul; and they besought him.

3 Requesting favour against him, that he would command him to be brought to Jerusalem, laying wait to kill him in the way.

4 But Festus answered: That

> 5 Let them therefore, saith he, among you that are able, go down with me, and accuse him, if there be any crime in the man.

> 6 And having tarried among them no more than eight or ten days, he went down to Cesarea, and the next day he sat in the judgment-seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.

> 7 Who being brought, the Jews stood about him, who were come down from Jerusalem, objecting many grievous causes which they could not prove;

8 Paul making answer for himself: Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cesar, have I offended in anything.

9 But Festus willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, answering Paul, said: Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then Paul said: I stand at Cesar's judgment-seat where I ought to be judged. To the Jews I have done no injury, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I have injured them, or have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die. But if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man may deliver me to them: I appeal to Cesar.

13 And after some days king Agrippa and Bernice came down to Cesarea to salute

Festus.

14 And as they tarried there many days, Festus told the king of Paul, saying: A certain man was left prisoner by Felix.

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the ancients of the Jews came unto me, desiring condemnation against him.

16 To whom I answered: It is not the custom of the Romans to condemn any man before that he who is accused have his accusers present, and have liberty to make his answer, to clear himself of the things laid to his charge.

17 When therefore they were come hither, without any delay, on the day following, sitting in the judgment-seat, I commanded the man to be brought.

18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of things which

I thought ill of:

19 But had certain questions of their own superstition against him, and of one Jesus deceased, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

21 But Paul appealing to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 And Agrippa said to Festus: I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice were come with great pomp, and had entered into the hall of audience, with the tribunes and principal men of the city, at Festus's commandment, Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus saith: King Agrippa, and all ye men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews dealt with me at Jerusalem, requesting and crying out that he ought not to live any longer.

25 Yet have I found nothing that he hath committed worthy of death. But forasmuch as he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to 3 Especially as thou knowest all, both customs and questions, that are among the Jews: Wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 And my life indeed from priests, my youth, which was from the nation in Jerusalem, all the Jews do know:

29 And Paul said: I would to God, that both in a little and in much, not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, should become such as I also am, except these bands.

30 And the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they spoke among themselves, saying: This man hath done nothing worthy of death or of bands.

32 And Agrippa said to Festus: This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed to Cesar.

THE

EPISTLE OF ST PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

St Paul wrote this Epistle at Corinth, when he was preparing to go to Jerusalem with the charitable contributions collected in Achaia and Macedonia for the relief of the Christians in Judea; which was about twenty-four years after our Lord's Ascension. It was written in Greek, but at the same time translated into Latin for the benefit of those who did not understand that language. And though it is not the first of his Epistles in the order of time, yet it is first placed on account of the sublimity of the matter contained in it, of the preeminence of the place to which it was sent, and in veneration of the Church.

CHAPTER I.

He commends the faith of the Romans, whom he longs to see. The philosophy of the heathens, being void of faith and humility, betrayed them into shameful

Christ, as man, was predestinated to be the Son of God: and declared to be so (as the apostle here signifies), first, by power, that is, by his working stupendous miracles; ecconally, by the spirit of sanctification, that is, by his infinite sanctity; thirdly, by his resurrection, or raising himself from the dead.

22 Forprofessing themselves to be wise they became fools.

23 2 And they changed the glory of the incorruptible God into the likeness of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds and of four-footed beasts and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore God gave them up to the desires of their heart, ³ unto uncleanness, to dishonour their own bodies among thomselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie: and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God delivered them up to shameful affections. For their women have changed the natural use into that use which is against nature.

27 And in like manner the men also, leaving the natural use of the women, have burned in their lusts one towards another, men with men working that which is filthy, and receiving in themselves the 19 For the good which I will, I do not; but the evil which I will not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that which I will not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that when I have a will to do good, evil is present with me.

&c. The apostle here describes the disorderly motions of passion and concupiscence: which oftentimes in us get the start of reason: and by means of which even good men suffer in the inferior appetite what their will abhors: and are much hindered in the accomplishment of the desires of their spirit and mind. But these evil motions (though they are called the 23 And not only it, but ourselves also, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption of the sons of God, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope. But hope that is seen, is not hope. For what a man seeth, why doth he hope for?

25 But if we hope for that which we see not: we wait for it with patience.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity. For we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit himself asketh for us with unspeakable groanings.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what the Spirit desireth; because he asketh for the saints according to God.

Not all who are the carnal seed of Israel, are true Israelites in God's account: who, as by his free grace he heretofore preferred Isaac before Ismael, and Jacob before Esau, so he could, and did by the like free grace, election and mercy, raise up spiritual children by faith to Abraham and Israel, from among the Gentiles, and prefer them before the carnal Jews.

Ver. 11. Not yet born, &c. By this example of these twins, and the preference of the younger to the elder, the drift of the apostle is, to shew that God, in his election, mercy, and grace, is not tied to any particular nation, as the Jews imagined, nor to any prerogative of birth, or any foregoing merits. For as, ante-cedently to his grace, he sees no merits in any, but finds all involved in sin, in the common punishment of his past demerits.

FIRST EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

ST PAUL having planted the faith in Corinth, where he had preached a year and a half, and converted a great many, went to Ephesus. After being there three years, he wrote this first Epistle to the Corinthians, and sent it by the same persons, Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, who had brought their letter to him. It was written about twentyfour years after our Lord's Ascension, and contains several matters appertaining to faith and morals, and also to ecclesiastical discipline.

CHAPTER VIII.

Though an idol be nothing, yet things offered up to idols are not to be eaten, for fear of scandal.

I OW concerning those things that are sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up: but charity edifieth.

2 And if any man think that he knoweth anything, he hath not yet known, as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known by him.

4 But as for the meats that are sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God. but one.

5 For although there be that are called gods either in heaven, or on earth (for there be gods many, and lords many;)

6 Yet to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him: and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 But there is not knowledge in every one. For some until this present with conscience of the idol, eat as a thing sacrificed to an idel: and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

8 But meat doth not comto my counsel: and I think that mend us to God. For neither, if we eat, shall we have the more: nor, if we eat not, shall we have the less.

> 9 But take heed lest perhaps this your liberty become a stumbling-block to the weak.

> 10 For if a man see him that hath knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not his conscience, being weak, be emboldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idols?

> 11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ hath died?

12 Now when you sin thus against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

13 2 Wherefore if meat scandalize my brother, I will never eat flesh, lest I should scandalize my brother.

CHAPTER IX.

The apostle did not make use of his power, of being maintained at the charges of those to whom he preached, that he might give no hindrance to the gospil. Of running in the race, and striving for the mastery.

7 Who serveth as a soldier at any time, at his own charges? Who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? Who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses: ¹ Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or doth he say this indeed for our sakes? For these things are written for our sakes; that he that ploweth should plow in hope: and he that thrasheth, in hope to receive fruit.

12 If others be partakers of this power over you; why not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power: but we bear all things, lest we should give any hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

13 3 Know you not that they who work in the holy place eat the things that are of the holy place; and they that serve the altar partake with the altar?

14 So also the Lord ordained that they who preach the gospel should live by the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things. Neither have I written these things, that they should be so done unto me: forit is good for me to die, rather than that any man should make my glory void.

16 For if I preach the gospel, it is no glory to me: for a necessity lieth upon me: for wo is unto me if I preach not the gospel.

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation is committed to me.

18 What is my reward then? That preaching the gospel, I may deliver the gospel without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

27 ¹ Therefore whosoever shall eat this bread or drink the chalice of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord.

28 ² But let a man prove himself; and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of the chalice.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord.

30 Therefore are there many infirm and weak among you, and many sleep.

31 But if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But whilst we are judged, we are chastised by the Lord; that we be not condemned with this world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

34 If any man be hungry, let him eat at home; that you come not together unto judgment. And the rest I will set in order, when I come.

Ver. 27. Or drink. Here erroneous translators corrupted the text, by putting and drink (contrary to the original, & πίνη) instead of or

Ver. 27. 29. Guilly of the body, &c., not discerning the body, &c. This demonstrates the real presence of the body and blood of Christ, even to the unworthy communicant; who otherwise could not be guilty of the body and blood of Christ, or justly condemned for not discerning the Lord's body.

Ver. 28. Drink of the chalice. This is not said by way of command, but by way of allowance, viz., where and when it is agreeable . to the practice and discipline of the Church.

CHAPTER XII.

Of the diversity of spiritual gifts. The members of the mystical body, like those of the natural body, must mutually cherish one another.

concerning spiritual things, my brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

- 2 You know that, when you were heathens, you went to dumb idols, according as you were led.
- 3 Wherefore I give you to understand, 3 that no speaking by the spirit of God, saith Anathema to Jesus. And no man can say, the Lord Jesus, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities of graces, but the same spirit;

5 And there are diversities of ministries, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but the same God, who worketh all in all.

7 And the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man unto profit.

8 To one indeed, by the Spirit, is given the word of wisdom: and to another, the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit.

9 To another, faith in the same Spirit: to another, the grace of healing in one Spirit:

10 To another, the working of miracles: to another, prophecy: another, the discerning of spirits; to another, diverse kinds of tongues; to another, interpretation of speeches.

CHAPTER XIII.

Charity is to be preferred before all other gifts.

IF I speak with the tongues of men, and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And if I should have prophecy, and should know all mysteries, and all knowledge, and if I should have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And if I should distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I should deliver my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity is patient, is kind: charity envieth not, dealeth not perversely: is not puffed up:

5 Is not ambitious, seeketh not her own, is not provoked to anger, thinketh no evil:

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth with the truth:

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never falleth away, whether prophecies shall be made void, or tongues shall cease, or knowledge shall be destroyed.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child. But when I became a man, I put away the things of a child.

12 We see now through a glass in a dark manner: but then face to face. Now I know in part; but then I shall know even as I am known even as I am known.

13 And now there remain faith, hope, charity, these three: but the greater of these is charity.

CHAPTER XIV.

The gift of prophesying is to be preferred before that of speaking strange tongues.

COLLOW after charity, be zealous for spiritual gifts: but rather that you may prophesy.

speaketh mysteries.

so many kinds of tongues in this world: and none is without voice.

11 If then I know not the power of the voice, I shall be to him, to whom I speak, a barbarian, and he, that speaketh, a barbarian to me.

12 So you also, for a smuch as you are zealous of spirits, seek to abound unto the edifying of the church.

13 And therefore he that speaketh by a tongue, let him pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is without fruit.

Ver. 16. Amen. The unlearned, not knowing that you are then blessing, will not be qualified to join with you by saying Amen to your blessing. The use or abuse of strange tongues, of which the apostle here speaks, does not regard the public liturgy of the Church (in which strange tongues were never used), but certain conferences of the faithful, ver. 26. &c., in which, meeting together, they discovered to one another their various miraculous gifts of the Spirit, common in those primitive times; amongst which the apostle prefers that of prophesying before that of speaking strange tongues, because it was more to the public edification. Where also note, that the Latin, used in our liturgy, is so far from being a strange or unknown tongue, that it is perhaps the best known tongue in the world.

neither so will they hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to believers, but to unbelievers: but prophecies, not to unbelievers, but to believers.

23 If therefore the whole church come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in unlearned persons or infidels, will they not say that you are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or an unlearned person, he is convinced of all,

he is judged of all.

25 The secrets of his heart are made manifest, and so, falling down on his face, he will adore God, affirming that God is among you indeed.

26 How is it then, brethren? When you come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation: let all things be done to edification.

27 If any speak with a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and in course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him hold his peace decently and according to order. in the church, and speak to himself and to God.

29 And let the prophets speak, two or three; and let the rest judge.

30 But if anything be revealed to another sitting, let which I preached to you, which the first hold his peace.

31 For you may all prophesy one by one; that all may learn, and all may be exhorted:

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the God of dissension, but of peace: as also I teach in all the churches of the saints.

34 Let women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted them to speak, but to be subject, 1 as also the law saith.

35 But if they would learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is a shame for a woman to speak in the church.

36 Or did the word of God come out from you? or came it only unto you?

37 If any seem to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him know the things that I write to you, that they are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man know not,

he shall not be known.

39 Wherefore, brethren, be zealous to prophesy: and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 But let all things be done

SECOND EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

In this Epistle Sr Paul comforts those who are now reformed by his admonitions to them in the former, and absolves the incestuous man on doing penance, whom he had before excommunicated for his crime. Hence he treats of true penance and of the dignity of the ministers of the New Testament. He cautions the faithful against false teachers and the society of infidels. He gives an account of his sufferings, and also of the favours and graces which God hath bestowed on him. This second Epistle was written in the same year with the first, and sent by Titus from some place in Macedonia.

He speaks of his troubles in Asia. His not coming to them was not out of levity. The constancy and sincerity of his doctrine.

AUL an apostle of Jesus CHRIST by the will of God, and Timothy our brother: to the Church of God that is at Corinth, with all the saints that are in all Achaia:

our tribulation; that we also may be able to comfort them who are in all distress, by the exhortation wherewith we also are exhorted by God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us: so also by Christ doth our comfort abound.

6 Now whether we be in tribulation, it is for your exhortation and salvation: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation: or whether we be exhorted, it is for your exhortation and salvation, which worketh the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer.

7 That our hope for you may be steadfast: knowing that as you are partakers of the suffer- had a mind to come to you beings, so shall you be also of the fore, that you might have a consolation.

8 For we would not have you ignorant, brethren, of our tribulation, which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure above our strength, so that we were weary even of life.

9 But we had in ourselves the answer of death, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead. *

10 Who hath delivered and doth deliver us out of so great dangers: in whom we trust that he will yet also deliver us.

18 But God is faithful, for our preaching which was to you, was not, It is, and It is not.

12 And when I was come to Troas for the gospel of Christ, and a door was opened unto me in the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but bidding them farewell, I went into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be to God, who always maketh us to triumph in Christ Jesus, and manifesteth the odour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are the good odour of Christ unto God, in them that are saved, and in them that perish.

O we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need (as some do) epistles of commendation to you, or from you?

2 You are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is known and read by all men:

3 Being manifested, that you are the epistle of Christ, ministered by us, and written hope, we use much confidence: not with ink, but with the spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in the fleshy tables of the heart.

CHAPTER V.

He is willing to leave his earthly mansion to be with the Lord. His charity for the Corinthians.

OR we know, if our earthly house of this habitation be dissolved, that we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

2 For in this also we groan, desiring to be clothed upon with our habitation that is from heaven:

3 ¹ Yet so, that we be found clothed, not naked.

4 For we also, who are in this tabernacle, do groan being burthened: because we would not be unclothed, but clothed upon, that that which is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

5 Now he that maketh us for this very thing is God, who hath given us the pledge of the Spirit.

6 Therefore having always confidence, knowing that, while we are in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walk by faith and not by sight.)

8 But we are confident, and have a good will to be absent rather from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 And therefore we labour,

10 ² For we must all be manifested before the judgment-seat of Christ, that every one may receive the proper things of the body, according as he hath done, whether it be good or evil.

11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we use persuasion to men: but to God we are manifest. And I trust also that in your consciences we are for you.

14 For the charity of Christ presseth us: judging this, that if one died for all, then all were dead.

EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

The Galatians, soon after St Paul had preached the gospel to them, were seduced by some false teachers, who had been Jews, and who were for obliging all Christians, even those who had been gentiles, to observe circumcision, and the other ceremonies of the Mosaical law. In this Epistle he refutes the pernicious doctrine of those teachers, and also their calumny against his mission and apostleship. The subject-matter of this Epistle is much the same as in that to the Romans. It was written at Ephesus about twenty-three years after our Lord's Ascension.

CHAPTER I.

He blames the Galatians for suffering themselves to be imposed upon by new teachers. The apostle's calling.

PAUL, an apostle, not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead,

- 2 And all the brethren who are with me, to the churches of Galatia.
- 3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present wicked world, according to the will of God and our Father:
- 5 To whom is glory for ever and ever. Amen.
- 6 I wonder that you are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ, unto another gospel.

7 Which is not another, only there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

- 8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach a gospel to you besides that which we have preached to you, let him be anathema.
- 9 As we said before, so now I say again: If any one preach to you a gospel, besides that which you have received, let him be anathema.
- 10 For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.
- 11 ¹ For I give you to understand, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man.

12 ² For neither did I receive it of man, nor did I learn it; but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For you have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion; how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it.

17 Neither went I to Jerusalem to the apostles who were before me; but I went into Arabia, and again I returned to Damascus.

18 Then, ¹ after three years, I went to Jerusalem to see Peter, and I tarried with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles I saw none; saving James the brother of the Lord.

St Paul was called in an extra-ordinary manner to be the apostle of the Gentiles; St Peter, besides his general commission over the whole flock (Yohn xxi, 15, &c.) had a peculiar charge of the people of the circumcision, that is, of the Jews, Ver. 11. THE

EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS.

Ephesus was the capital of Lesser Asia, and celebrated for the temple of Diana, to which the most part of the people of the East went frequently to worship. But St Paul having preached the gospel there for two years the first time, and afterwards for about a year, converted many. He wrote this Epistle to them when he was a prisoner in Rome, and sent it by Tychicus. He admonishes them to hold firmly the faith which they had received, and warns them, and also those of the neighbouring cities, against the sophistry of philosophers and the doctrine of false teachers, who were come among them. The matters of faith contained in this Epistle are exceedingly sublime, and consequently very difficult to be understood. It was written about twenty-nine years after our Lord's Ascension.

EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS

The Philippians were the first among the Macedonians converted to the faith. They had a great veneration for ST PAUL, and supplied his wants when he was a prisoner in Rome, sending to him by Epaphroditus, by whom he sent this epistle; in which he recommends charity, unity, and humility, and warns them against false teachers, which he calls dogs and enemies of the cross of Christ. He also returns thanks for their benefactions. It was written about twenty-nine years after our Lord's Ascension.

CHAPTER I.

The apostle's affection for the Philippians. AUL and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ: to all the saints in Christ Jesus, who are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons.

2 Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I give thanks to my God in every remembrance of you.

4 Always in all my prayers making supplication for you all, with joy:

5 For your communication in the gospel of Christ from the understanding: first day until now.

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he who hath begun a good work in you, will perfect it unto the day of CHRIST JESUS.

7 As it is meet for me to think this for you all: for that I have you in my heart; and that in my bands, and in the defence, and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers of my joy.

8 For God is my witness, how I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER II.

He recommends to them unity and humility; and to work out their salvation with fear and trembling.

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of charity, if any society of the spirit, if any bowels of commiseration;

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that you be of one mind, having the same charity, being of one accord, agreeing in sentiment.

- 3 Let nothing be done through contention, neither by vain-glory: but in humility, let each esteem others better than themselves:
- 4 Each one not considering the things that are his own, but those that are other men's.
- 5 For let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
- 6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
- 7 But emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men, and in habit found as a man.

8 ¹ He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death: even to the death of the cross.

9 For which cause God also hath exalted him, and hath given him a name which is above all names:

10 ² That in the name of Jesus every knee should bow of those that are in heaven, on earth, and under the earth:

11 And that every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my dearly beloved, (as you have always obeyed,) not as in my presence only, but much more now in my absence with fear and trembling work out your salvation.

13 For it is God who worketh in you both to will and to accomplish, according to his good will.

14 ³ And do ye all things without murmurings and hesitations:

15 That you may be blameless, and sincere children of God, without reproof, in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation: among whom you shine as lights in the world.

THE

EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE COLOSSIANS

Colossa was a city of Phrygia, near Laodicea. It does not appear that ST PAUL had preached there himself, but that the Colossians were converted by Epaphras, a disciple of the Apostles. However, as ST Paul was the great Apostle of the Gentiles, he wrote this Epistle to the Colossians when he was in prison, and about the same time that he wrote to the Ephesians and Philippians. The exhortations and doctrine it contains are similar to that which is set forth in his Epistle to the Ephesians.

CHAPTER I.

He gives thanks for the grace bestowed upon the Colossians; and prays for them: Christ is the head of the church and the peace-maker through his blood. Paul is his minister.

7 As you learned of Epaphras, our most beloved fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ Jesus,

8 Who also hath manifested to us your love in the spirit.

9 Therefore we also, from the day that we heard it, cease not to pray for you and to beg that you may be filled with the well pleased the Father, that knowledge of his will, in all wisdom, and spiritual understanding:

10 That may walk you worthy of God, in all things pleasing: being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God.

CHAP. IV. Ver. 16. And that you read that which is of the Laodiceans. What this epistle was is uncertain, and annotators have given different opinions concerning it. Some expound these words of an epistle which St Paul wrote to the Laodiceans, and is since lost, for that now extant is no more than a collection of sentences out of the other epistles of St Paul; therefore it cannot be considered against which the apostle was anxious to warn even as a part of that epistle. Others explain that the text means a letter sent to St Paul by pernicious doctrine.

the Laodiceans, which he sends to the Colossians to be read by them. However, this opinion does not seem well founded. Hence it is more probable that St Paul wrote an epistle from Rome to the Laodiceans about the same time that he wrote to the Colossians, as he had them both equally at heart, and that he ordered that epistle to be read by the Colossians for their instructions; and, being neighbouring cities, they might communicate to each other what they had received from him; as one epistle might contain some matters not related in the other, and would be equally useful for their concern; and more particularly as they were equally disturbed by intruders and false teachers,

THE

FIRST EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

Thessalonica was the capital of Macedonia, in which ST PAUL having preached the gospel, converted some Jews and a great number of the gentiles: but the unbelieving Jews, envying his success, raised such a commotion against him, that he and his companion Sylvanus were obliged to quit the city. Afterwards he went to Athens, where he heard that the converts in Thessalonica were under a severe persecution ever since his departure, and lest they should lose their fortitude he sent Timothy to strengthen and comfort them in their sufferings. In the meantime ST PAUL came to Corinth, where he wrote this first Epistle, and also the second to the Thessalonians both in the same year, being the nineteenth after our Lord's Ascension. These are the first of his Epistles in the order of time.

SECOND EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

In this Epistle St Paul admonishes the Thessalonians to be constant in the faith of Christ, and not to be terrified by the insinuations of false teachers telling them that the day of judgment was near at hand, as there must come many signs and wonders before it. He bids them to hold firm the traditions received from him, whether by word, or by epistle, and shews them how they may be certain of his letters by the manner he writes.

CHAPTER L

CHAP. II. Ver. 3. A revolt. This revolt or falling off, is generally understood, by the ancient fathers, of a revolt from the Roman empire, which was first to be destroyed, before the coming of Antichrist. It may, perhaps, be understood also of a revolt of many nations from the Catholic Church; which has, in part, happened already, by the means of Mahomet, Luther, &c., and it may be supposed, will be more general in the days of Antichrist.—Ibid. The man of sin. Here must be meant some particular man, as is evident from the frequent repetition of the Greek article o, the man of sin, the son of perdition, the adversary or opposer, o article person. It agrees to the wicked and great Antichrist, who will come before the end of the world.

FIRST EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO TIMOTHY

TPAUL writes this Epistle to his beloved Timothy, being then Bishop of Ephesus, to instruct him in the duties of a bishop, both in respect to himself and to his charge; and that he ought to be well informed of the good morals of those on whom he was to impose hands: Impose not hands lightly upon any man. He tells him also how he hould behave towards his clergy. This Epistle was written about thirty-three years ofter our Lord's Ascension, but where it was written s uncertain: the more general opinion is, that it was in Macedonia.

He is also the only mediator who stands in need of no other to recommend his petitions to the Father. But this is not against our seeking the prayers and intercession, as well of the faithful upon earth as of the saints and angels in heaven, for obtaining mercy, grace, and salvation through Jesus Christ. And St Paul himself often desired the help of the prayers of the faithful, without any injury to the mediatorship of Jesus Christ.

SECOND EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO TIMOTHY

In this Epistle the Apostle again instructs and admonishes Timothy in what belonged to his office, as in the former; and also warns him to shun the conversation of those who had erred from the truth, describing at the same time their character. He tells him of his approaching death, and desires him to come speedily to him. It appears from this circumstance, that he wrote this second Epistle in the time of his last imprisonment at Rome, and not long before his martyrdom.

He admonishes him to stir up the grace he received by his ordination, and not to be discouraged at his sufferings, but to hold firm the sound doctrine of the gospel.

EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO TITUS

Aur. having preached the faith in the Island of Crete, he ordained beloved disciple and companion Titls bishop, and left him there finish the work which he had begun. Afterwards the Apostle, on a journey to Nicopolis, a city of Macedonia, wrote this Epistle to Titus; in which he directs him to ordain bishops and priests for the different cities, shewing him the principal qualities necessary for a bishop, also gives him particular advice for his own conduct to his flock, exhorting him to hold to strictness of discipline, but seasoned with lenity. It was written about thirty-three years after our Lord's Ascension.

CHAPTER I.

EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO PHILEMON

PHILEMON, a noble citizen of Colossa, had a servant named ONESIMUS, who robbed him, and fled to Rome, where he met St Paul, who was then a prisoner there the first time. The Apostle took compassion on him, and received him with tenderness and converted him to the faith; for he was a gentile before. ST PAUL sends him back to his master with this Epistle in his favour: and though he beseeches PHILEMON to pardon him, yet the Apostle writes with becoming dignity and authority. It contains divers profitable instructions, and points out the charity and humanity that masters should have for their servants.

THE

EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE HEBREWS

ST PAUL wrote this Epistle to the Christains in Palestine, the most part of whom being Jews before their conversion, they were called Hebrews. He exhorts them to be thoroughly converted and confirmed in the faith of Christ, clearly shewing them the pre-eminence of Christ's priesthood above the Levitical, and also the excellence of the new law above the old. He commends faith by the example of the ancient fathers: and exhorts them to patience and perseverance, and to remain in fraternal charity. It appears, from chap. xiii, that this Epistle was written in Italy, and probably at Rome, about twenty-nine years after our Lord's Ascension.

The transgression of the precepts of the Son of God is far more condemnable, than those of the Old Testament given by angels.

HEREFORE ought more diligently to observe the things which we have heard, lest perhaps we should let them slip.

2 For if the word, spoken by angels, became steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recom-

CHAPTER III.

Christ is more excellent than Moses: and therefore we must adhere to him by faith and obedience.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly vocation, consider the apostle and high-priest of our confession, Jesus:

2 Who is faithful to him that made him, as was also ¹ Moses in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of greater glory than Moses, by so much as he that hath built the house, hath greater honour than the house.

4 For every house is built by some man; but he that created all things is God.

5 And Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be said:

6 But Christ as the Son in his own house: which house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and glory of hope unto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the Holy Ghost saith: ² To-day if you shall hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation; in the day of temptation in the desert,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, proved and saw my works,

10 Forty years: For which cause I was offended with this generation, and said: They always err in heart. And they have not known my ways, 11 As I have sworn in my wrath: If they shall enter into my rest.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest perhaps there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, to depart from the living God.

13 But exhort one another every day, whilst it is called to-day, that none of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ: yet so if we hold the beginning of his substance firm unto the end.

15 While it is said: To-day if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts as in that provocation.

16 For some who heard did provoke: but not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 And with whom was he offended forty years? Was it not with them that sinned, ³ whose carcasses were overthrown in the desert?

18 And to whom did he swear that they should not enter into his rest: but to them that were incredulous?

19 And we see that they could not enter in, because of unbelief.

4 For in a certain place he spoke of the seventh day thus: ² And God rested the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again: If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing then it remaineth that some are to enter into it. and they, to whom it was first preached, did not enter because of unbelief:

7 Again he limiteth a certain day, saying in David: To-day, after so long a time, as it is above said: 3 To-day if you shall hear his voice; harden not your hearts.

8 For if Jesus had given them rest: he would never have afterwards spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a day of rest for the people of God.

CHAPTER XI

What faith is: its wonderful fruits and efficacy, demonstrated in the fathers.

TOW faith is the substance of things to be hoped for, the evidence of things that appear not.

2 For by this the ancients obtained a testimony.

3 1 By faith we understand that the world was framed by the word of God; that from invisible things visible things might be made.

4 2 By faith Abel offered to God a sacrifice exceeding that of Cain, 3 by which he obtained a testimony that he was just, God giving testimony to his gifts, and by it he being dead vet speaketh.

5 4 By faith Henoch was translated, that he should not see death, and he was not found because God had translated him: For before his translation he had testimony that he pleased

God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please God. For he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and is a rewarder to them that seek him.

7 ⁵ By faith Noe having received an answer concerning those things which as yet were not seen, moved with fear framed the ark for the saving of his house, by the which he condemned the world: and was instituted heir of the justice which is by faith.

8 6 By faith he that is called Abraham, obeyed to go out into a place which he was to receive for an inheritance: and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land, dwelling in cottages, with Isaac and Jacob, the co-heirs of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city that hath foundations: whose builder and maker is God.

11 ⁷ By faith Sara also herself, being barren, received strength to conceive seed, even past the time of age: because she believed that he was faithful who had promised.

12 For which cause there sprung even from one (and him as good as dead) as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

13 All these died according to faith, not having received the promises, but beholding them afar off, and saluting them, and confessing that they are pilgrims and strangers on the earth.

14 For they that say these things do signify that they seek a country.

But some translators, who are no friends to this relative honour, have corrupted the text, by translating it, he worshipped, learning upon the top of his staff; as if this circumstance of leaning upon his staff were any argument of Jacob's faith, or worthy the being thus particularly taken actice of by the Holy Ghost.

This is a warning to married people not to abuse the sanctity of their state by any liberties or irregularities contrary thereunto. Now it does not follow from this text that all persons are obliged to marry, even if the word omnibus were rendered in all persons, instead of in all things: for if it was a precept, St Paul himself would have transgressed it, as he rever married. CATHOLIC EPISTLE OF ST JAMES THE APOSTLE

This Epistle is called Catholic of Universal, as formerly were also the two Epistles of St Peter, the first of St John, and the one of St Jude, because they were not written to any peculiar people or particular person, but to the faithful in general. It was written by the Apostle St James, called the Less, who was also called the Brother of our Lord, being his kinsman (for cousin-germans with the Hebrews were called brothers). He was the first bishop of Jerusalem. In this Epistle are set forth many precepts appertaining to faith and morals; and particularly, that faith without good works will not save a man, that true wisdom is given only from above. In the fifth chapter he publishes the Sacrament of anointing the sick. It was written a short time before his martyrdom, about twenty-eight years after our Lord's Ascension.

CHAPTER I.

The benefit of tribulations. Prayer with faith. God is the author of all good, but not of evil. We must be slow to anger: and not hearers only, but doers of the word. Of bridling the tongue; and of pure religion.

JAMES, the servant of God and of our Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy, when you shall fall into divers temptations :

3 ¹ Knowing that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 And patience hath a perfect work: that you may be perfect and entire, failing in nothing.

CHAP. I. Ver. 2. Into divers temptations. The word temptation, in this Epistle, is sometimes taken for trials by afflictions or persecutions, as in this place: at other times, it is to be understood; tempting, enticing, or drawing others into sin.

5 But if any of you want wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all men abundantly, and upbraideth not: and it shall be given him.

6 ² But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, which is moved and carried about by the wind.

7 Therefore let not that man think that he shall receive anything of the Lord.

13 Let no man when he is tempted, say that he is tempted by God. For God is not a tempter of evils, and he tempteth no man.

14 But every man is tempted by his own concupiscence, being drawn away and allured.

15 Then when concupiscence hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin. But sin, when it is completed, begetteth death.

16 Do not err therefore, my dearest brethren.

Against respect of persons. The danger of transgressing one point of the law; Faith is dead without works.

Y 1 brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory with respect of persons.

2 For if there shall come into your assembly a man having a golden ring, in fine apparel, and there shall come in also a poor man in mean attire,

3 And you have respect to him that is clothed with the fine apparel, and shall say to him: Sit thou here well: but say to the poor man: Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool:

4 Do you not judge within yourselves, and are become judges of unjust thoughts?

5 Hearken, my dearest brethren; hath not God chosen the poor in this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which God hath promised to them that love him?

6 But you have dishonoured the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you by might; and do not they draw you before the judgment-seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme the good name that is invoked upon you?

¹ Lev. 19. 15. Deut. 1. 17. and 16. 19. Prov. 24. 23. Eccli. 42. 1.

8 If then you fulfil the royal law, according to the scriptures, ² Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself; you do well.
9 ³ But if you have respect to

9 ³ But if you have respect to persons, you commit sin, being reproved by the law as trans-gressors.

10 ⁴And whosoevershall keep the whole law, but offend in one point, is become guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Thou shalt not commit adultery, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Now if thou do not commit adultery, but shalt kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as being to be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For judgment without mercy to him that hath not done mercy. And mercy exalteth itself above judgment.

14 What shall it profit, my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but hath not works? Shall faith be able to save him?

Ver. 10. Guilty of all; that is, he becomes a transgressor of the law in such a manner, that the observing of all other points will not avail him to salvation; for he despises the law-giver, and breaks through the great and general commandment of chairty, even by one mortal sin. For all the precepts of the law are to be considered as one total and entire law, and as it were a chain of precepts whereby breaking one link of this chain, the whole chain is broken, or the integrity of the law consisting of a collection of precepts. A sinner, therefore, by a grievous offence against any one precept, incurs eternal punishment: yet the punishments in hell shall be greater for those who have been greater sinners, as a greater reward shall be for those in heaven who have lived with greater sanctity and perfection.

CHAP. II. Ver. 1. With respect of persons. Sinner, the meaning is, that in matters relating to faith, the administering of the sacraments, and other spiritual functions in God's Church, there should be no respect of persons: but that the souls of the poor should be as much regarded as those of the rich. 16 And one of you say to them: Go in peace, be you warmed and filled; yet give them not those things that are necessary for the body, what shall it profit?

17 So faith also, if it have not works, is dead in itself.

18 But some man will say: Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy without works, and I will shew thee, by works, my faith.

19 Thou believest that there is one God. Thou dost well: the devils also believe and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 ² Was not Abraham our father justified by works, offering up Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou that faith did co-operate with his works: and by works faith was made perfect.

23 And the scripture was fulfilled, saying: 3 Abraham believed God, and it was reputed to him to justice, and he was called the friend of God.

24 Do you see that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only?

FIRST EPISTLE OF ST PETER THE APOSTLE

This first Epistle of St Peter, though brief, contains much doctrine concerning Faith, Hope, and Charity, with divers instructions to all persons of what state or condition soever. The Apostle commands submission to rulers and superiors, and exhorts all to the practice of a virtuous life in imitation of Christ. This Epistle is written with such apostolical dignity as to manifest the supreme authority with which its writer, the prince of the Apostles, had been vested by his lord and master Jesus Christ. He wrote it at Rome, which figuratively he calls Babylon, about fifteen years after our Lord's Ascension.

CHAPTER I.

He gives thanks to God for the benefit of our being called to the true faith, and to eternal life: into which we are to enter by many tribulations. He exhorts to holiness of life: considering the holiness of God, and our redemption by the blood of Christ.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers dispersed through Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, elect.

2 According to the foreknowledge of God the Father, unto the sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you and peace be multiplied.

3 IBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy hath regenerated us unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

4 Unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that cannot fade, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Who, by the power of God, are kept by faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 Wherein you shall greatly rejoice, if now you must be for a little time made sorrowful in

divers temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith (much more precious than gold which is tried by the fire) may be found unto praise and glory and honour at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 Whom having not seen, you love: in whom also now, though you see him not, you believe: and believing shall rejoice with joy unspeakable and glorified.

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and diligently searched, who prophesied of the grace to come in you,

11 Searching what or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ in them did signify: blood of Christ, as of a lamb when it foretold those suffer-unspotted and undefiled; ings that are in Christ, and the glories that should follow:

foolish men:

Honour the king.

SECOND EPISTLE OF ST PETER THE APOSTLE

In this Epistle ST PETER says (chap. iii), Behold this second Epistle I write to you: and before (chap. i, 14), Being assured that the laying away of this my tabernacle is at hand. This shews that it was written a very short time before his martyrdom, which was about thirty-five years after our Lord's Ascension. In this Epistle he admonishes the faithful to be mindful of the great gifts they received from God, and to join all other virtues with their faith. He warns them against false teachers, by describing their practices and foretelling their punishments. He describes the dissolution of this world by fire, and the day of judgment.

CHAPTER I.

He exhorts them to join all other virtues with their faith in order to secure their 13 But I think it meet as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance.

14 Being assured that the laying away of this my tabernacle is at hand, according as our Lord Jesus Christ also hath ¹ signified to me.

15 And I will do my endeayour, that after my decease also, you may often have whereby you may keep a memory of these things.

He warns them against false teachers, and foretells their punishment.

CHAP. I. Ver. 20. No prophecy of scripture is made by private interpretation. This shews plainly that the Scriptures are not to be expounded by any one's private judgment or private spirit, because every part of the holy scriptures were written by men inspired by the Holy Ghost, and declared as such by the Church; therefore they are not to be inter-preted but by the Spirit of God, which he hath left, and promised to remain with his Church to guide her in all truth to the end of the world. Some may tell us that many of our divines interpret the Scriptures: they may do so, but they do it always with a submission to the judgment of the Church, and not other-

FIRST EPISTLE OF ST JOHN THE APOSTLE

The same vein of divine love and charity towards our neighbour, which runs throughout the Gospel written by the beloved disciple and evangelist, St John, is found also in his Epistles. He confirms the two principal mysterics of our faith: the mystery of the Trinity, and the mystery of the incarnation of Jesus Christ the Son of God. The sublimity and excellence of the evangelical doctrine he declares: And this commandment we have from God, that he, who loveth God, love also his brother (chap. iv, 21); and again: For this is the charity of God, that we keep his commandments; and his commandments are not heavy (chap. v, 3). He shews how to distinguish the children of God from those of the devil: marks out those who should be called Antichrists: describes the turpitude and gravity of sin. Finally, he shows how the sinner may hope for pardon. It was written, according to Baronius' account, sixty-six years after our Lord's Ascension.

CHAPTER I.

He declares what he has seen and heard of Christ, (who is the life eternal,) to the end that we may have fellowship with God, and all good through him: yet so if we confess our sins.

HAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with ur eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the word of life:

- 2 For the life was manifested: and we have seen, and do bear witness, and declare unto you the life eternal, which was with the Father, and hath appeared to us:
- 3 That which we have seen and have heard, we declare unto you, that you also may have fellowship with us, and our fellowship may be with the Father, and with his Son Jesus CHRIST.

to you, that you may rejoice, and your joy may be full.

- 5 And this is the declaration which we have heard from him, and declare unto you: ¹That God is light, and in him there is no darkness.
- 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth.
- 7 But if we walk in the light, as he also is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, ² and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all us our sins, and to cleanse us you, but an old commandment from all iniquity.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER II.

Christ is our advocate: we must keep his commandments, and love one another. We must not love the world, nor give ear to new teachers; but abide by the Spirit of God in the Church.

MY little children, these things I write to you that you may not sin. But if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the just:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world.

3 And by this we know that we have known him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He who saith that he knoweth him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him:

5 But he that keepeth his word, in him in very deed the charity of God is perfected; and by this we know that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also to walk, even as he walked.

7 Dearly beloved, I write not a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you have heard.

8 ¹ Again a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true both in him and in you: because the darkness is passed, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 ² He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is no scandal in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth: because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because you have known him, who is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one.

14 I write unto you, babes, because you have known the Father. I write unto you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abideth

CHAPTER III.

Of the love of God to us; how we may dis-tinguish the children of God and those of the devil. Of loving one another, and of purity of conscience.

EHOLD what manner of charity the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called, and should be the sons of God. Therefore the world knoweth not us, because it knew not him.

2 Dearly beloved, we are now the sons of God; and it hath not yet appeared what we shall be. We know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like to him: because we shall see him as he is.

3 And every one that hath this hope in him sanctifieth himself, as he also is holy.

4 Whosoever committeth sin, committeth also iniquity: and sin is iniquity.

5 And you know that he appeared to take away our sins: and in him there is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth, hath not seen him, nor

8 2 He that committeth sin sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God appeared, that he might destroy the works of the devil, 9 Whosoever is born of God. committeth not sin: for his seed abideth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil. Whosoever is not just, is not of God, nor he that loveth not his brother

11 For this is the declaration, which you have heard from the beginning, 3 that you should love one another.

12 Not as 4 Cain, who was of the wicked one, and killed his brother. And wherefore did he kill him? Because his own works were wicked, and his brother's just.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer. And you know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in himself.

16 2 In this we have known the charity of God, because he hath laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 ³ He that hath the substance of this world, and shall see his brother in need, and shall put up his bowels from him; how doth the charity of God abide in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, nor in tongue, but in deed, and in truth.

Ver. 16. A sin which is not to death, &c. It is hard to determine what St John here calls a sin which is not to death, and a sin which is unto death. The difference cannot be the same as betwixt sins that are called venial and mortal: for he says that if a man pray for his brother who commits a sin that is not to death, life shall be given him : therefore such a one had before lost the life of grace, and been guilty of what is commonly called a mortal sin. And when he speaks of a sin that is unto death, and adds these words. for that I say not that any man ask, it cannot be supposed that St John would say this of every mortal sin, but only of some heinous sins, which are very seldom remitted, because such sinners very seldom repent. By a sin therefore which is unto death, interpreters commonly understand a wilful apostacy

Nor yet does St John say that such a sin is never remitted, or cannot be such a sin is never remitted, of cannot be remitted, but only has these words, for that I say not that any man ask the remission; that is, though we must pray for all sinners whatsoever, yet men cannot pray for such sinners with such a confidence of obtaining always their petitions, as St John said before,

SECOND EPISTLE OF ST JOHN THE APOSTLE

The Apostle commends Electa and her family for their steadfastness in the true faith, and exhorts them to persevere, lest they lose the reward of their labours. He exhorts them to love one another, but with heretics to have no society, ever not to salute them. Although this Epistle is written to a particular person, yet its instructions may serve as a lesson to others, especially to those who, from their connexions, situation, or condition of life, are in danger of perversion.

CHAPTER I.

He recommends walking in truth, loving one another, and to beware of false teachers.

THE

CATHOLIC EPISTLE OF ST JUDE THE APOSTLE

ST JUDE, who wrote this Epistle, was one of the twelve Apostles, and brother to ST JAMES THE LESS. The time it was written is uncertain, only it may be inferred from rer. 17, that few or none of the Apostles were then living except St John. He inveighs against the heresies and wicked practices of the Simonians, Nicolaites, and Gnostics, &c., describing them and their leaders by strong epithets and similes. He exhorts the faithful to contend earnestly, for the faith first delivered to them, and to beware of heretics.

THE

APOCALYPSE OF ST JOHN THE APOSTLE

In the first, second, and third chapters of this Book are contained instructions and admonitions which ST JOHN was commanded to write to the seven bishops of the churches in Asia. And in the following chapters, to the end, are contained prophecies of things that are to come to pass in the church of Christ, particularly towards the end of the world, in the time of Antichrist. It was written in Greek, in the island of Patmos, where St John was in banishment by order of the cruel Emperor Domitian, about sixty-four years after our Lord's Ascension.

CHAPTER I.

St John is ordered to write to the seven churches in Asia: the manner of Christ's appearing to him.

CHAP. I. Ver. 1. The things which must shortly come, and again it is said, ver. 3, The time is at hand. This cannot be meant of all the things prophesied in the Apocalypse, where mention is made also of the day of judgment, and of the glory of heaven at the end of the world. That some things were to come to pass shortly is evident by what is said to the Seven Churches, chap, ii and iii. Or that the persecutions foretold should begin shortly. Or that these words signified that all time is short, and that from the coming of Christ we are now in the last age or last hour. See 1 70hn ii. 18.

Or they may be real locusts, but of an extraordinary size and monstrous shape, such as were never before seen on the earth, sent to torment those who have not the sign (or seal) of God on their foreheads. Some commentators by these locusts understand heretics, and especially those heretics stand hereics, and especially those hereics that sprung from Jews, and with them denied the divinity of Jesus Christ; as Theodotts, Praxeas, Noctus, Paul of Samosata, Sabellius, Arius, &c. These were great enemies of the Christian religion; they tormented and infected the souls of men, stinging them, like scorpions, with the poison of their hereises. Others have explained these locusts, and other animals, mentioned in different places by mean the fall and apostacy of great and treed men from the true faith; or a whole most absurd. fanciful, and ridiculous manner: learned men from the true faith; or a whole most absurd, fanciful, and ridiculous manner: this Angel was given the power, which is here this Angel was given the power, which is here this Angel was given the power, which is here signified by a key, of opening hell.

14 Saving to the sixth Angel, who had the trumpet: Loose the four angels, who are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, who were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year: for to kill the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of horsemen was twenty thousand times ten thousand.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision: and they that sat on them had breastplates of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and from their mouths proceeded fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 And by these three plagues was slain the third part of men, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails. For their tails are like to serpents, and have heads: and with them they hurt.

20 And the rest of the men who were not slain by these plagues, did not do penance from the works of their hands. that they should not adore devils and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and wood, which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither did they penance from their murders, nor from their sorceries, nor from their fornications, nor from thefts.

CHAP. XIII. Ver. 1. A beast. This first beast with seven heads and ten horns, is probably the whole company of infidels, enemies, and persecutors of the people of God, from the beginning to the end of the world. The seven heads are seven kings, that is, seven principal kingdoms or empires, which have exercised, or shall exercise, tyrannical power over the people of God; of these, five were then fallen. viz., the Egyptian, Assyrian, Chaldean, Persian, and Grecian monarchies: against the woman, and went to make war with the rest of CHAP. XXII. Ver. 10. For the time is at hand. That is, when, compared to eternity, all time and temporal things vanish, and are but of short duration. As to the time when the chief predictions should come to pass, we have no certainty, as appears by the different opinions, both of the ancient fathers and late interpreters. Many think that most things set down from the 4th chapter to the end will not be fulfilled till a little time before the end of the world. Others are of opinion that a great part of them, and particularly the fall of the wicked Babylon, happened at the fall of the wicked Baoylon, happened at the destruction of Paganism, by the destruction of heathen Rome, and its persecuting heathen Emperors. Of these interpretations, see Alcazar, in his long commentary, see the learned Bossuet, Bishop of Meaux, in his treatise on this Book, and P. Alleman, in his treatise on this Book, and P. Alleman, in his notes on the same Apocalypse, tom. 12, who in his Preface says that this, in great measure, may be now looked upon as the opinion followed by the learned men. In fine, others think that St John's design was in a mystical way, by metaphors metallic mental in matter and the may proceed, their progress shall quickly end, and then they must expect to meet with proportionable punishments.

In the meantime we meet with many profitable instructions and admonitions, which we may easily enough understand: but we have no casily enough understand; but we have no particular events: for as St Jerome takes no circe, the Apocalypse has as many mysteries as words, or rather mysteries in every word.
